Newsletter—28th January 2022

Our Value for January is Peace.

February 1st marks the beginning of the Chinese New Year. 2022 is the year of the tiger. To mark the festival there will be many celebrations in Chinese communities around the world. The celebrations culminate in a lantern festival where the sky is lit up with paper lanterns.

Year 2 Orienteering.

The children in Year 2 had a brilliant time on Wednesday developing their orienteering skills around the school grounds.

ECO Tree Planting

On Thursday members of the school ECO team joined the City of Trees project with tree planting. The aim of the scheme is to expand and develop urban woodland, increase wildlife and develop biodiversity in the area.

Rainforest adventures.

This week the children in Year 5 have been planning a journey from Golborne to a major rainforest. The children have had to think about which time of the year to visit, the best method of transport, expected weather and what supplies they will need.
