Newsletter—22nd April 2022

Our Value for April is Courage

Welcome back. We hope you all had a lovely Easter holiday.

A visit to Space.

Our Reception classroom has been transformed into space. The children have a fantastic role play area designed as a space rocket which they are loving. They will be finding out about all the different planets during their work.

Dates For Your Diary

27th—29th April Year 4 Residential

Monday 2nd May BANK HOLIDAY.

Thursday 5th May—Year 1 visit to Delamere Forest

Snails

We have 7 African Snails in school now. The children will enjoy finding out all about their habitat and lifecycle in addition to learning how to care for them.

School Places

Parents have now been notified of the school they have been allocated for their child. Please remember to inform the office that you accept the place. We will send dates of new starter's events later in the term.
